DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of applicant's response filed on 3/19/2007, the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is withdrawn.

Election/Restrictions

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species I, a method of selecting and scanning scan lines; and Species II, a method of selecting and scanning backlight devices.

Species I and II comprises the following sub-species:

Sub-species A, dividing a display into a first area/ set of lines (backlight devices);

Sub-species B, dividing a display into a first and second area/ set of lines (backlight devices); and

Sub-species C, dividing a display into a first, second and third area/ set of lines (backlight devices).

Sub-species A, B and C further comprise the following sub-species:

Further sub-species 1, selecting and scanning a line and thereafter alternately selecting and scanning a lower order line and a higher order;

Further sub-species 2, randomly selecting and scanning the lines;

Art Unit: 2629

Further sub-species 3, selecting and scanning each line based on steps of varying sizes in a first direction from each prior selected line, and then reversing the first direction when the selecting is beyond an extent of a display;

Further sub-species 4, selecting and scanning a first set of contiguous lines, scanning a second set of contiguous lines, and subsequently scanning a third set of contiguous lines that are located between the first and second sets of lines; and

Further sub-species 5, selecting and scanning a plurality of lines based on a select sequence which is based on a data content.

The species (and sub-species) are independent or distinct because each species and sub-species is directed to different invention.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species (and sub-species) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species (and sub-species) that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species (and a sub-species) or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species (and sub-species) may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Remarks

5. The specification, as originally filed, does not appear to provide support for the third area of the display as is now claimed in claim 19. The third area is included in the above Election/Restrictions due to the introduction of claim 19.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dennis-Doon Chow whose telephone number is 571-272-7767. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-5:00.
